WELCOME TO FESTA 2016

Nau mai, haere mai

I'm delighted that this Labour Weekend, FESTA 2016: We Have the Means focuses on sustainability and the reuse of waste materials in design. The 'means' we are celebrating are the people of Christchurch and visitors to our city, as well as the valuable materials that we are able to repurpose and divert from landfill.

We are also very excited to be working with this year's creative director Jos de Krieger of Superuse Studios in the Netherlands, a leading specialist in urban interventions and reuse.

Finally, a big thanks to all the collaborators, volunteers, sponsors and funders who have worked hard to make FESTA 2016 happen, and to you our public – we invite you all to enjoy a vibrant reimagining of the city that brings together thousands of people.

Dr Jessica Halliday
FESTA Director

MESSAGE FROM OUR CHAMPION

On behalf of the city of Christchurch I would like to extend a warm welcome to all FESTA 2016 attendees.

This year's FESTA theme 'We Have the Means', and its focus on the reuse of materials and waste reduction, is a great example of the direction that we encourage for all events in Christchurch.

I would like to acknowledge the team that has created the projects for FESTA, and especially those who have travelled internationally to be a part of this festival.

I'm really looking forward to this year's event and in advance I congratulate all those that have made it happen.

Mayor Lianne Dalziel

ABOUT FESTA

FESTA is a weekend celebration of urban creativity and regeneration. We invite city-makers and citizens to imagine and experience Christchurch differently. Now a biennial event, FESTA serves to build connections between the people of Christchurch and their central city. FESTA broadens participation in city-making, encourages active citizenship and invests in the city's long-term sustainability and regeneration. FESTA is produced and presented by Te Pūhahi - Christchurch centre for architecture and city-making.

WORCESTER BOULEVARD
RAIN DATE SUNDAY 23 OCTOBER

EXPERIENCE

LIVE FOR ONE NIGHT ONLY JOIN CHRISTCHURCH'S BIGGEST STREET PARTY!

Come into the city to experience a bold, reimagined Christchurch in a collective celebration with thousands of Cantabrians as well as visitors.

Free and open to all, Lean Means is FESTA's headline extravaganza – a spectacular temporary city packed with large-scale installations, performance, markets, food, bars, music, art and more.

Lean Means creatively explores the sustainable ways we could regenerate our city with a night of colour, light and people. In an international collaboration involving Creative Director Jos de Krieger (Superuse Studios) and students from seven leading design and architecture schools from across Australasia, inner city spaces are transformed with imaginative installations fabricated from reused 'waste' materials.

Additional highlights include:

- + A parade of Waste Warriors (a wearable art parade for children) kicks things off at 5.15pm.
- + Throughout the night of Lean Means, three leading contemporary artists – Juliet Arnott of Rekindle, artist Julia Morison and movement artist Julia Harvie – weave their work into the event.
- + Christchurch Art Gallery and COCA are staying open late for night viewings of their exhibitions.
- + A night market has second-hand goods and upcycled items on offer.
- + A pop-up restaurant celebrates local, sustainable fare where diners encounter the full food system within a bespoke pavilion.

"We think ingenious, beautiful and functional architectural and social design solutions can be created using existing resources, materials and systems. Everything is already there, we just have to see and utilise it. In this way we can transform to a sustainable society and limit the environmental impact of architecture and design. To make optimal use of locally sourced 'waste' in new design solutions is what we call SUPERUSE."

ARTS CRAFTS AND LITERATURE

Unlikely Talismans

Anita Parris

Friday 21 Oct–Monday 24 Oct

The Commons, 70 Kilmore St

Free

Unlikely Talismans turns perceived notions of adornment on their head by reflecting on resourcefulness.

Supersized trinkets are fashioned from recycled and repurposed materials readily available in the city. These honour the spirit of FESTA by bringing surprise and delight in unexpected places: awards to venerate and commemorate our city.

UC Fine Arts Hons Photography Exhibition

In Situ Photo Project

Friday 21 Oct 9am–5.30pm

Sat 22 & Sun 23 Oct, 10am–5pm

BNZ Centre, 120 Hereford St

Free

In Situ Photo Project exhibits work by emerging artists alongside established NZ photographers. Through the showing, facilitating and promoting of the photographic medium, In Situ provides an opportunity for New Zealanders to experience high-quality arts, and to expand the cultural platform of Christchurch, encouraging talented and aspiring individuals to stay.

Lost Christchurch

Danielle Rose Mileo &

Melbourne School of Design

Open throughout FESTA

See festa.org.nz for details

Free

The erasure of heritage architecture in Christchurch has fundamentally altered the physical presence of the collective historical past and reshaped the city's identity. Situated at the intersection between what is lost and what remains, Lost Christchurch stresses the value of remaining heritage architecture and asks viewers to reflect on concepts of 'waste'.

CoCAcabana

CoCA Toi Moroki

Friday 21 Oct, 5–8pm

66 Gloucester St

Free

Join us for a late night at the gallery with CoCAcabana. At 6pm, hear from the three artists participating in FESTA's headline event, Lean Means: Julia Morison, Juliet Arnott and Julia Harvie. The gallery is open and free with a cash-bar and local produce to accompany the discussions.

WikiHouse Open Day

Space Craft Systems

Saturday 23 Oct, 10.30–11.30am & 2–3pm

19 Nuttall Dr, Hillsborough

Koha entry, bookings: festa.org.nz

Learn about the research and development behind crafting affordable, healthy, safe housing that doesn't cost the earth and discover how ordinary people can engage in the process of building high performance homes. Join the discussion on how we conceive and make our built environment and who gets to build it. (20 places per session.)

Zero Waste Ōtautahi

Rekindle

Saturday 22 Oct, 11am–late

Sunday 23 Oct, 11am–4pm

Corner of Montreal & Gloucester

Free

Zero Waste Ōtautahi is an initiative focused on reducing our waste by developing our resourceful habits. This work launches at FESTA 2016 with two projects: the Zero Waste Map of Ōtautahi Christchurch and the Zero Waste Village of Resourcefulness, where skilled craftspeople undertake high quality crafts that are zero waste in nature.

Launch of Freerange Vol.11: Institutional Love

Freerange Press

Sunday 23 Oct, 4–6pm

Space Academy, 371 St Asaph St

Free

Join us for drinks and nibbles as we launch Freerange Volume 11: Institutional Love. This journal explores the idea that the changes needed in society are now best managed through a caring approach to existing practices and institutions – using the means we have available to us – rather than asking for their complete reinvention.

Ahorangi's Spider

Amiria Kiddle and others

Sunday 23 Oct & Monday 24 Oct

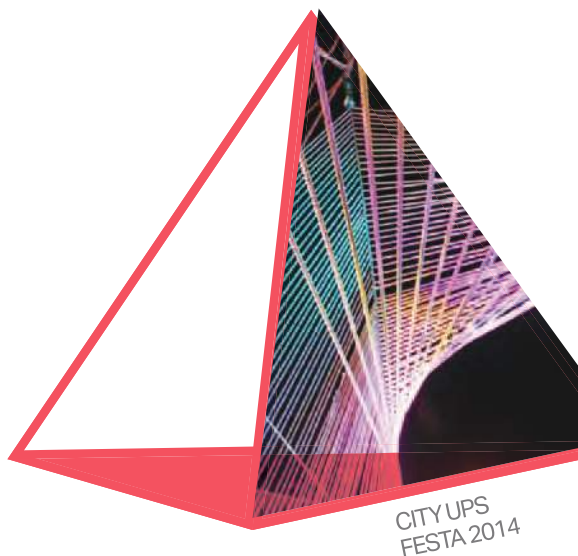

10am–5pm

The Arcades Project, 70 Kilmore Street

Free

This site-specific art intervention at The Arcades Project uses a common commercial waste material – plastic packaging tape – to transform the iconic structure. Watch the live making of Ahorangi's Spider over the course of the day and see how waste materials can be repurposed to create something beautiful for Christchurch.

Presented in association with Architectural Designers New Zealand.

Talking Books brings together a collection of passionate experts on a range of topics – from the state of the city through to music and brewing beer. Pick a title and explore its subject via a twenty-minute conversation with a human talking book. Visit our website for a full range of titles and times.

Design.Craft.Enable.Value. Symposium

Rekindle & Objectspace
Monday 24 October, 10am–4pm
CCC Civic Building, 53 Hereford St
$58, registration: rekindle.org.nz

This event relates to the work of: waste minimisation leaders in business, local and central government; practitioners & academics in design, craft, reuse & waste-related sciences; student/graduate designers & architects; community resource recovery organisations; occupational therapists with interest in therapeutic value of resource recovery; those involved with wellbeing economics, community strengthening and the second-hand goods markets.

Bikey Face CHCH Soapbox

cycleCHCH & RAD Bikes
Sunday 23 Oct, 1–3pm
RAD Bikes at The Commons, 70 Kilmore St
Free

This is an interactive session for people to openly talk about all things bikes: what they enjoy most, and even what's grinding their gears. Hear what others have learned and where Christchurch fits in the global transport space – but with more fun and activities than your normal transport talk. We promise!

The Bureaucratic Love Session

Freerange Press
Sunday 23 Oct, 1–4pm
Space Academy, 371 Saint Asaph St
Free

Do institutions matter? And if so, how can we take better care of them? This speaker session brings together a range of special guests to nurture a dialogue about institutions and bureaucracies. How can we help improve existing institutions in Christchurch, globally, and in our own lives?

Beers and Banter

Generation Zero
Sunday 23 Oct, 6–7:30pm
Ministry of Awesome, 192 St Asaph St
Free, RSVP via Facebook

The climate is in crisis and New Zealand's emissions are growing. Generation Zero is taking action by writing a Zero Carbon Act for New Zealand – the means to get the future we need. We explain our campaign and then collectively imagine a better future and how we can achieve this.

Weaving Identity into the City

Amiria Kiddle and others
Monday 24 Oct, 5.30–6.30pm
The Arcades Project, 70 Kilmore St

Given that FESTA has lots of outdoor events in a city marked by uncertainty, dates, times and locations are subject to change. Please check FESTA's website and Facebook page for the most up-to-date information. Some FESTA events are held on vacant ex-demolition sites: ground may be uneven, sensible shoes are advised and caution should be exercised.
